"Henly Imperial Blue": Johnson Bros.

Lightness is very desirable. This set is as light as is consistent with durable wear. You will be proud to lay your table with such elegant dishes. It is new. It is beautiful. It is durable. These three qualities are all combined in this set. Decoration is a white seroll rose on a wide Imperial blue band. It is a reproduction from an old copper plate. All pieces are of desirable size—everything is in propor-

'Cyril': Johnson Bros.

Cyril: Johnson Dros.

This decoration has gained more popularity in a short period than any of our newer sets. Our first trial order of sixteen sets lasted "no time"—even the big second shipment will not likely last through this February Sale. "Cyril" has come to stay, and our stock is now complete. It consists of a conventional border of roses on brown, and black lines, edged with gold. Start collecting this decoration now, it is OPEN STOCK. Or, better still, you can purchase a complete 97-piece dinner and tea set for $15.00

Withdrawals in Twelve Years Totalled $175,664.

Toronto Fab. 2.—The financial taction adopted by Hardy Pollman Evans and his associate directors of the Union Life Assurance Company received a scathing criticism in the report made by Mr. G. T. Clarkson, the liquidator of the de-since corporations, which resteree Mr. George Eappele.

The report, which followed the Gorermanest investigation into the affairs and the second of the Union of the Union Comment investigation into the Hallow State of the Union Life, is a minute one, and goes thoroughly liste the chain of corporations controlled by Mr. Erman and used by him to keep the Union Life from going into liquidation for a number of years. As the result of its ultimate failure and the wrecking of a number of other companies linked up in the corporation chain. Mr. Clarkson finds that the total loss sustained will be $2,556,853.
